Voice of the Patient

Positive

- Baileigh Sparks nominated by a patient who called Jack McKinnon: I received a call from a patient stating Baileigh did her mammogram and said she did an amazing job. The patient said mammograms usually have her in tears from the discomfort and her prior history. This patient wanted to personally call me and let me know the exceptional job she did and that she will recommend GCGH to anyone needing a mammogram.

- Taylor Lannan nominated by a patient: Dr. Hammerstein repaired my torn rotator cuff. He described it as a very excessive tear, one in which he gave a 60% chance of being successful. The following day, I was introduced to Taylor who was going to be my occupational therapist. I was given therapy for 5 ½ months with Taylor directing every session. From the very first session, I could tell she was going to help me get the most use out of my repaired arm as possible. Taylor constantly drew upon her knowledge and professionalism to navigate each session. She was always thinking as we went along on what exercises and stretching activities she could incorporate to increase my mobility and strength. Every session Taylor would encourage me and push me to work as hard as I could to achieve our goal which I am pleased to say we did. I cannot say enough about Taylor's help with my recovery and I think from what was mentioned she deserved this award. But this is not the only reason I'm asking for her to be recognized. Taylor was unable to be at my last 3 sessions, and I was unaware as to why until recently. I found out later she was going through a life-changing event with an unexpected emergency with her new baby. It has been a few weeks from my final therapy session when I received a phone call from Taylor checking up on me and of all things, apologizing for not being able to be with me to the end of my therapy. I find it absolutely amazing after all she's going through with her baby and tornado damage, that she cares that much for her patients to think to call and follow up with me. It's because of Taylor's professionalism, her knowledge, her desire to help her patients achieve their recovery goals and just her compassion for helping people that I highly encourage your facility to bestow upon Taylor the PETAL award as well as any other acknowledgements of a job well done. Greene County General Hospital is a great healthcare provider, one that our community is fortunate to have, and with great people like Taylor it will continue to be. Thank you.
- Kylee Denton nominated by a patient: I was so happy with my care at the Worthington Clinic and appreciated it so much. Kylee's mother should be very proud of her because she went above and beyond with my care the other day.
